1. Explain what citizenship in the world means to you and what you think it takes to be a good world citizen.
2. Explain how one becomes a citizen in the United States, and explain the rights, duties, and obligations of U.S. citizenship. Discuss the similarities and differences between the rights, duties, and obligations of U.S. citizens and the citizens of two other countries.
3. Do the following:
  - a. Pick a current world event. In relation to this current event, discuss with your counselor how a country's national interest, history, and its relationship with other countries might affect areas such as its security, its economy, its values, and the health of its citizens.
  - b. Select a foreign country and discuss with your counselor how its geography, natural resources, and climate influence its economy and its global partnerships with other countries.
4. Do TWO of the following:
  - a. Explain international law and how it differs from national law. Explain the role of international law and how international law can be used as a tool for conflict resolution.
  - b. Using resources such as major daily newspapers, the Internet (with your parent's permission), and news magazines, observe a current issue that involves international trade, foreign exchange, balance of payments, tariffs, and free trade. Explain what you have learned. Include in your discussion an explanation of why countries must cooperate in order for world trade and global competition to thrive.
  - c. Select TWO of the following organizations and describe their role in the world.
    - (1) The United Nations and UNICEF
    - (2) The World Court

- (3) Interpol
- (4) World Organization of the Scout Movement
- (5) The World Health Organization
- (6) Amnesty International
- (7) The International Committee of the Red Cross
- (8) CARE (Cooperative for American Relief Everywhere)
- (9) European Union

5. Do the following:

- a. Discuss the differences between constitutional and non-constitutional governments.
- b. Name at least five different types of governments currently in power in the world.
- c. Show on a world map countries that use each of these five different forms of government.

6. Do the following:

- a. Explain how a government is represented abroad and how the United States government is accredited to international organizations.
- b. Describe the roles of the following in the conduct of foreign relations.
  - (1) Ambassador
  - (2) Consul
  - (3) Bureau of International Information Programs
  - (4) Agency for International Development
  - (5) United States and Foreign Commercial Service
- c. Explain the purpose of a passport and visa for international travel.

7. Do TWO of the following (with your parent's permission) and share with your counselor what you have learned:

- a. Visit the website of the U.S. State Department. Learn more about an issue you find interesting that is discussed on this website.
- b. Visit the website of an international news organization or foreign government, OR examine a foreign newspaper available at your local library, bookstore, or newsstand. Find a news story about a human right realized in the United States that is not recognized in another country.
- c. Visit with a student or Scout from another country and discuss the typical values, holidays, ethnic foods, and traditions practiced or enjoyed there.
- d. Attend a world Scout jamboree.
- e. Participate in or attend an international event in your area, such as an ethnic festival, concert, or play.

Homework for all Merit Badges before class:

Please read and follow instructions in the Merit Badge Homework Guide included in this Guide.

Please read the BSA merit badge book.

Homework for Citizenship in the World Merit Badge before class:

To complete Citizenship in the World Merit Badge all Scouts must complete the following assignments before class.

The merit badge pamphlet is best, and the preferred, information resource for all BSA merit badge classes. With parent/adult permission, the following Internet resources may help Scouts complete requirements in advance of camp.

Using the Internet for research for Winter Camp is a good time to update your Cyber Chip. A Cyber Chip Guide is included in the appendix of this Guide

Scouts must bring these completed prerequisites to Winter Camp and must bring paper and must bring pen or pencil.

Requirement # 1. Scouts should review the document Citizenship: What Every Scout Must Know included in this Guide.
Please Be Prepared to discuss in class.
