

LEAVE NO TRACE TRAINING

November 1st, 2025

Belk Scout Camp

Join us for an engaging and informative Leave No Trace 101 training class hosted by the Mecklenburg County Council Outdoor Ethics Committee. This class covers the 7 Leave No Trace Principles through practical applications and hands-on activities.

We will:

- Review the 7 LNT principles, history, and importance
- Review Scouting America's Scouting and Venturing conservation awards and merit badges associated with LNT, Conservation, and Outdoor Ethics
- Discuss ways to easily incorporate the 7 LNT principles and Outdoor Ethics into your hikes, camping/backpacking trips, and into your pack or troop meetings
- Provide resources for you to take back to your units

 Meets requirements for World Conservation Award

Learn the principles of outdoor ethics and how to minimize your impact while enjoying nature.

As leaders, we play a vital role in shaping how our scouts interact with the natural world. This training is not just about planning and logistics—it's about reaffirming our commitment to the principles of Leave No Trace and ensuring that every scout who ventures into the outdoors does so with respect, responsibility, and awareness.

This training is ideal for scouts, leaders, and outdoor enthusiasts who want to deepen their understanding of responsible outdoor practices.

 Please bring your favorite camp chair and snacks.
